MEnstruation impacts my education

- Many girls in Kenya still miss 1 week of school every month because of menstruation.
- A girl without education is more likely to marry early and become a teenage parent.
- In Kenya girls who complete school have an average of 2 or 3 children. Those who don't have an average of 8.

MEnstrual hygiene empowers me

- Provide education and mentoring to empower communities to invest in girls.
- Provide access to clean water and girl-friendly latrines in schools.
- Provide cheaper sanitary products that are easy to use.

Girls in Kenya miss out on education, employment and opportunities because they don't have the protection, facilities or support to live life through their period. Nothing should stop girls making a difference in their communities. #MEnstruationMatters
